3) Birth Anniversary of Sevalal Maharaj (15.02.2024)

The birth of Anniversary of Sewalal Maharaj was celebrated in Rajiv Gandhi College. This program was organized with the aim of making the students aware about the work and biography of Sewalal. Dr. Madhav Baswante, the principal of the college was present as the president of in his speech Dr. M.G. Basvante told that, Sevalal Maharaj (15 February 1739 – 4 December 1806) was an Indian socio-religious reformer, community leader, and is now revered by the Gor Banjara community as a spiritual guru. Guru Sevalal Maharaj was born to Bheema Naik(father) and Dharamani Yaadi(Mother) in 18th century. He died at Ruhigarh (Yavatmal District) and was buried at Poharagarh in Washim district, now in the state of Maharashtra. His samadhi still stands there, adjacent to a temple dedicated to goddess Jagadamba. Although he was opposed to personality cults and rituals, it is a popular destination for Banjaras. Similar adjacent temples dedicated to Sevalal and to Jagdamba exist elsewhere and also attract worshipers in significant numbers.

There are folk songs praising Sevalal that are popular during Banjara festivities. Every Banjara/ Gor/Lambadi village or hamlets has temple for Sri Sevalal Guru. All the Banjara hoist a pink colour flags at spiritual sites in every village to show deep sense of spiritual reverence and claim the deep sense of community dignity. The program was moderated by Professor Dr. DH Mehetre and vote of thanks was proposed by Professor Mokle Sir. This programme was attended by the students, the teachers and the office bearers.
