Brief Report:

A guest lecture was organized by the department of English at Rajiv Gandhi Mahavidyalaya, Mudkhed, as part of the Alumni Lecture Series. Miss Sanyogita A. Kamble was invited to deliver her guest lecture on 'Career Opportunities and English Language' at 11 am in ICT Hall on 05.03.2025. The lecture focused on the employment opportunities available for the students who are proficient in English language. Miss Sanyogita Kambale highlighted that the English language serves as a bridge connecting us with other countries. She emphasized that English is an international language, and there are vast employment opportunities in major city-based companies for individuals who have mastered English communication skills. Apart from discussing employment opportunities, she also shared valuable insights on how to master the English language effectively. In his presidential address, Dr. A. T. Shinde, the principal of the college, urged the students to understand the importance of the English language and make efforts to learn it. English plays a significant role from a professional standpoint, and its benefits cannot be ignored in today's world.

The program was chaired by Dr. A. T. Shinde, Principal of the college. Dr. Rahul Dhaware, Professor and Head of the English Department, gave the introductory remarks, and Miss. Sulochana Malve expressed the vote of thanks. A total of 45 students attended the event. The program was conducted by B.A. second-year student, Miss. Nazia Pathan. The lecture was an insightful session, helping students realize the importance of learning English for professional growth and opportunities.
