Brief Report:

Anti-Sexual Harassment Committee, Rajiv Gandhi College, Mudkhed, organized a guest lecture of Dr. Jyoti Mungal, Dept. of Hindi, R.G.M., Mudkhed, on International Women's Day on Women Empowerment at 10.30 am on 08.03.2025. The event began with a lightening of the lamp by the women. She emphasized the importance of empowering women in all fields. She appreciated the hardworking, intelligent, and underprivileged female students, encouraging them to work towards shaping their lives. She emphasized that women deserve respect, honor, and dignity, which will enable them to fearlessly reach new heights in their lives.

Dr. A. T. Shinde, Principal, RGM, was the president of the programme. In his presidential speech, highlighted examples of capable, courageous, and successful women, urging them to become self-reliant and empowered. He stated that today's women are laying the foundation for their accomplishments while balancing family responsibilities and contributing significantly to the country.

The students Gayatri Panchal, Nazia Pathan, Samruddhi Hamand, Supriya Nikhate, Saloni Hanumante, Prachi Jadhav, and Rutuja Ingole shared their thoughts. Miss Sulochana Malve, Co-ordinator of the Anti-Sexual Harassment Committee, gave an introductory remark. The event was conducted by Shreya Shinde, a student whereas Kadambari Chaudante, a student, proposed the vote of thanks. A total of 63 students attended the programme.
